

KINDERGARTEN NEWSFLASH

January 21, 2011

Dear Kindergarten Families,

This short week was a review week due to Martin Luther King, Jr. Day and our snowy weather days. With that being said, our short academic week incorporated the following:

Literacy: We Read: The Mitten and the students enjoyed drawing a picture from the story and writing to finish the sentence - "If I were wearing mittens, I could...."

The students also finished their snowman projects from last week and wrote about their snowman that they made. (My snowman...)

Phonics - Review of short "i"

Handwriting - "Ii" (cont.)

Math: Chapter 8.

We learned to recognize and represent numbers 0-12 in many different arrangements and parts.

We learned to order numbers in sequence from 0-12.

We tested out of Chapter 7 last week.

Religion:

We learned to appreciate that our family members teach us new things at home.

Some important items:

- Second quarter report cards will be out soon and I have completed the student assessments.
- We will be starting our Math Packet Folders next week. (couldn't this week due to short week).
- Catholic Schools Week is January 31st - February 4th, 2011.
- FYI - Our Class Color for Kindergarten is White.

Have a great weekend!
